

Knowledge Check List- The Historic Environment (Medicine on the Western Front)

Can you answer:	Yes, completely and without looking in my book	I'm not 100% sure
1. What are national records?
2. What are local records?
3. What happened at the Battle of Ypres (first, second and third)?
4. What happened at the Battle of Arras?
5. What happened during the Battle of the Somme?
6. What happened at the Battle of Cambrai?
7. Describe the trench system
8. How did the terrain have an impact on the wounded?
9. What is trench fever?
10. What is trench foot?
11. What is NYD.N (shell shock)?
12. What weapons were used during the war?
13. What wounds did soldiers get as a result of weaponry used in the war?
14. Describe the evacuation route. How effective was it?
15. What work did the RAMC and FANY do?
16. Describe the problems of infection, blood loss and pain
17. How did the x-ray develop? How did it help treat soldiers?
18. What was the impact and development of blood transfusions and the storing of blood?
19. What was the Thomas Splint?
20. What was the impact of the war on brain surgery?
21. List 8 different types of primary sources that you can use to find out more about medicine on the Western Front.
22. In what ways can we claim that a primary source is useful?
23. Why/ how might there be problems with a primary source?		