

Year
11

Reading

- Provide detailed and perceptive analysis of how subtle features of language/ tone achieve effects.
- Make considered, accurate use of critical literary and linguistic language that supports comments.
- Produce sustained and detailed critical comparisons.
- Demonstrate a persuasive evaluation of a text and its effects.
- Support your evaluations with convincing and purposeful textual references.

Writing

- Complete clearly controlled writing with convincing detail, some originality and imagination.
- Use a range of punctuation, including ellipsis and parenthetical brackets with accuracy.
- Use a wide range of accurate sentence structures for effect.
- Ensure vocabulary choices are ambitious and mostly successful
- Ensure spelling, including irregular words, is secure.

Year
10

Reading

- Analyse, with insightful comments, the effects achieved by writers' language choices.
- Consistently use critical language accurately to support comments
- Make detailed comparisons.
- Show some critical evaluation of the text and its effects.
- Support your evaluations with well-selected textual references.

Writing

- Complete clearly controlled writing with convincing detail and imagination, in a variety of genres.
- Use punctuation, including semi-colons, colons, ellipsis, dashes, parenthetical brackets accurately.
- Use a wide range of accurate sentence structures for effect.
- Ensure vocabulary choices are ambitious and mostly successful.
- Ensure spelling, including irregular words, is secure.

Year
9

Reading

- Analyse the effects writers' language choices have.
- Use a range of subject specific language to support comments.
- Comment, consistently and securely on how similarities and differences are conveyed.
- Consistently evaluate a text and the effects on the reader.
- Support your evaluations with well-chosen textual references.

Writing

- Complete well-developed and controlled writing in a variety of genres.
- Use a range of punctuation accurately including some use of colons and semi-colons.
- Use a variety of sentence structures successfully and for effect.
- Ensure vocabulary choices are developing and used with precision.
- Ensure spelling of most irregular words is accurate.

Year 8

Reading

- Show understanding of how language is used to achieve effects.
- Use some appropriate subject specific language.
- Identify some similarities and differences between texts and comment on how they are conveyed.
- Begin to evaluate the text and effects on the reader .
- Support your evaluations with appropriate textual references.

Writing

- Complete controlled, coherent and developed writing.
- Use a range of punctuation with only occasional slips.
- Use a variety of sentence structures, including complex sentences, for effect.
- Ensure vocabulary is carefully selected.
- Ensure spelling of less common irregular words is mostly accurate.

Year 7

Reading

- Make some developed comments about language features.
- Use some subject specific language to support comments.
- Identify and describe some similarities and differences between texts.
- Provide a personal opinion on a text, based on evidence.
- Support your opinions with appropriate textual references.

Writing

- Ensure writing shows control of the content and is paragraphed.
- Use a range of punctuation, including some accurate use of colons and semi-colons.
- Use sentences that are simple, compound and complex.
- Ensure your vocabulary choices are varied throughout a piece of writing.
- Ensure spelling of less common irregular words is accurate.